Division 3—Visual flight rules

170 Interpretation

In this Division, flight level 200, in relation to a time and place, means such a height above the ground or water that, if an aircraft were flying at that height at that time and place and had an altimeter adjusted to a reading on the sub-scale of 1013.2 millibars, the altimeter would show a height of 20,000 feet.

181C What is an RVSM airworthiness approval?

An RVSM airworthiness approval is an approval given, under regulation 181G, for an Australian aircraft indicating that it is suitable to be operated in RVSM airspace.

181D What is an RVSM foreign airworthiness approval?

An RVSM foreign airworthiness approval is an approval (however described) given for a foreign aircraft by the competent authority of the country in which the aircraft is registered indicating that the aircraft is suitable to be operated in RVSM airspace.

181E What is an RVSM operational approval?

An RVSM operational approval is an approval given, under regulation 181M, to an Australian operator approving the operator to operate the aircraft covered by the approval in RVSM airspace.

Regulation 181F

Subdivision 2—RVSM airworthiness approvals

181F Application for RVSM airworthiness approval

- (1) The operator of an Australian aircraft may apply to CASA for an RVSM airworthiness approval for the aircraft.
- (2) An application must be in writing and must be accompanied by:
 - (a) documents that identify the aircraft; and
 - (b) enough information to show that the aircraft is equipped with the following:
 - (i) 2 independent altitude measurement systems;
 - (ii) a secondary surveillance radar transponder that has an altitude-reporting system that can be switched to operate from either of the altitude measurement systems;
 - (iii) an altitude alert system;
 - (iv) an automatic altitude control system; and
 - (c) enough information to show that the equipment mentioned in paragraph (b) meets the requirements of ICAO Doc. 9574-AN/934; and

181I Notice to RVSM airworthiness approval holder to show cause

- (1) CASA may give the holder of an RVSM airworthiness approval a show cause notice if there are reasonable grounds for believing that there are facts or circumstances that would justify the cancellation of the approval under regulation 181J.
- (2) A show cause notice must:
 - (a) tell the holder of the facts and circumstances that, in CASA's opinion, would justify the cancellation of the approval under regulation 181J; and
 - (b) invite the holder to show in writing, within a reasonable time stated in the notice, why the approval should not be cancelled.
- (3) A show cause notice may state that the approval is suspended if CASA reasonably considers that there may be a serious risk to aviation safety if the approval were not suspended.
- (4) If a show cause notice states that the approval is suspended, the approval is suspended from when the notice is given to the holder.
- (5) CASA may at any time revoke the suspension.
- (6) If the approval is suspended and CASA has not dealt with it under regulation 181J within the period of 90 days after the day it is suspended, the suspension lapses at the end of that period.

Note: Regulation 297A provides for review of certain decisions by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal.

Regulation 181J

 - (a) CASA has given the holder a show cause notice under regulation 181I in relation to it; and
 - (b) CASA has taken into account any representations made, within the period stated in the notice, by or on behalf of the holder; and
 - (c) there are reasonable grounds for believing that the aircraft covered by the approval:
 - (i) does not meet, or continue to meet, a requirement of this Division for the approval; or
 - (ii) is no longer capable of being operated safely in RVSM airspace because of inaccurate or unreliable height-keeping caused by the failure, or malfunctioning, of any of the aircraft's equipment mentioned in paragraph 181F(2)(b).
- (2) If CASA has given a show cause notice under regulation 181I to the holder of an RVSM airworthiness approval and it decides not to cancel the approval, it:
 - (a) must tell the holder in writing of the decision; and
 - (b) must, if the approval is suspended under that regulation, revoke the suspension.

296C Can an infringement notice be withdrawn?

- (1) An authorised person may withdraw an infringement notice served on a person (in this regulation called the recipient) by serving written notice of the withdrawal on the recipient:
 - (a) within 28 days after the date of service of the infringement notice; or
 - (b) if an authorised person allows the recipient a further period of time in which to pay the prescribed penalty for the offence mentioned in the notice—before the end of the further period.

Regulation 296D

- (2) Without limiting the generality of subregulation (1), the authorised person may withdraw the infringement notice after taking into account:
- (a) whether the recipient has previously been convicted of an offence against these Regulations; or
 - (b) the circumstances in which the offence specified in the notice is alleged to have been committed; or
 - (c) whether an infringement notice has previously been served on the recipient in relation to an offence of the same type as the offence specified in the notice and in relation to which the recipient paid the prescribed penalty; or
 - (d) any other relevant matter.
- (3) If:
- (a) the recipient pays the prescribed penalty within 28 days after the date of service of the notice, or within any further period (not being more than 28 days) allowed by an authorised person (whether before or after the end of the first 28 day period); and

 - (e) specify where and how the prescribed penalty may be paid.

Regulation 296F

- (2) An infringement notice may contain any other matters that CASA considers necessary.

296F What happens if you pay the prescribed penalty?

If:

- (a) an infringement notice is served on a person; and
- (b) the person pays the prescribed penalty for the offence mentioned in the notice within 28 days after the date of service of the notice, or within any further period (not being more than 28 days) allowed by an authorised person (whether before or after the end of the first 28 day period); and notice or within the further time allowed;

- (4) A certificate that purports to have been signed by an authorised person is taken to have been signed by that person unless the contrary is proved.

296H Can there be more than one infringement notice for the same offence?

This Division does not prevent the service of more than one infringement notice on a person for the same offence, but regulation 296F applies to the person if the person pays the prescribed penalty in accordance with one of the infringement notices.

296I What if payment is made by cheque?

If a cheque is offered to CASA as payment of all or part of the amount of a prescribed penalty, payment is taken not to have been made unless the cheque is honoured upon presentation.

296J This Division does not prevent a matter being prosecuted in a court and does not mean that an infringement notice must be served in all cases

Nothing in this Division:

- (a) requires an infringement notice to be served on a person in relation to a prescribed offence; or
